Recipes (ételreceptek)

This is Sam Brown. He is a cook, and he has got a TV show where he cooks and tells the viewers some recipes, too. Let's watch the show together!

Hello! My name is Sam Brown. Welcome to my show "Let's cook together!". Today's recipe is the traditional Hungarian Goulash Soup. These are the ingredients: 1 large onion, 1 teaspoon red paprika, 300 g of meat (beef or pork), one green pepper, one tomato, 3 carrots, 1 parsley root, 8 medium-size potatoes, 100 g of flour, one egg, some salt and pepper, some oil, 1 1/2 litres of water

- 1) First, I cut the meat into cube and then I chop the onion into small pieces and lightly fry them in oil in a pot.
- 2) I sprinkle one teaspoon of red paprika onto the frying onion.
- 3) I add salt and pepper and a green pepper and a tomato, too and I cook them under a lid until the vegetables become almost tender.
- 4) In the meantime, I slice the carrots, the parsley root and the potatoes into cubes and then I put them into the pot, too.
- 6) Then I pour 1.5 litres of water into the pot, I cover it and cook until everything becomes tender.
- 7) In the meantime, I make a dough from the flour and the egg with some salt.
- 8) I roll the dough in the flour and prepare small noodles from the dough and cook directly in the ready soup.
- 9) I serve it with a slice of bread. Enjoy your meal!

GROCERY SHOPPING

Woman: Good morning!

Grocer: Good morning, madam! Can I help you?

Woman: Yes, please. I would like a dozen of eggs and a bottle of milk.

Grocer: Here you are, madam. Would you like anything else?

Woman: I also need a bunch of asparagus, 2 kilograms of potatoes, and a package of sugar.

Grocer: All right. Which sugar? Powdered or caster sugar?

Woman: Caster sugar is fine. Do you keep detergents, too?

Grocer: Yes, they are right here.

Woman: Oh, I see. I need a bottle of washing-up liquid.

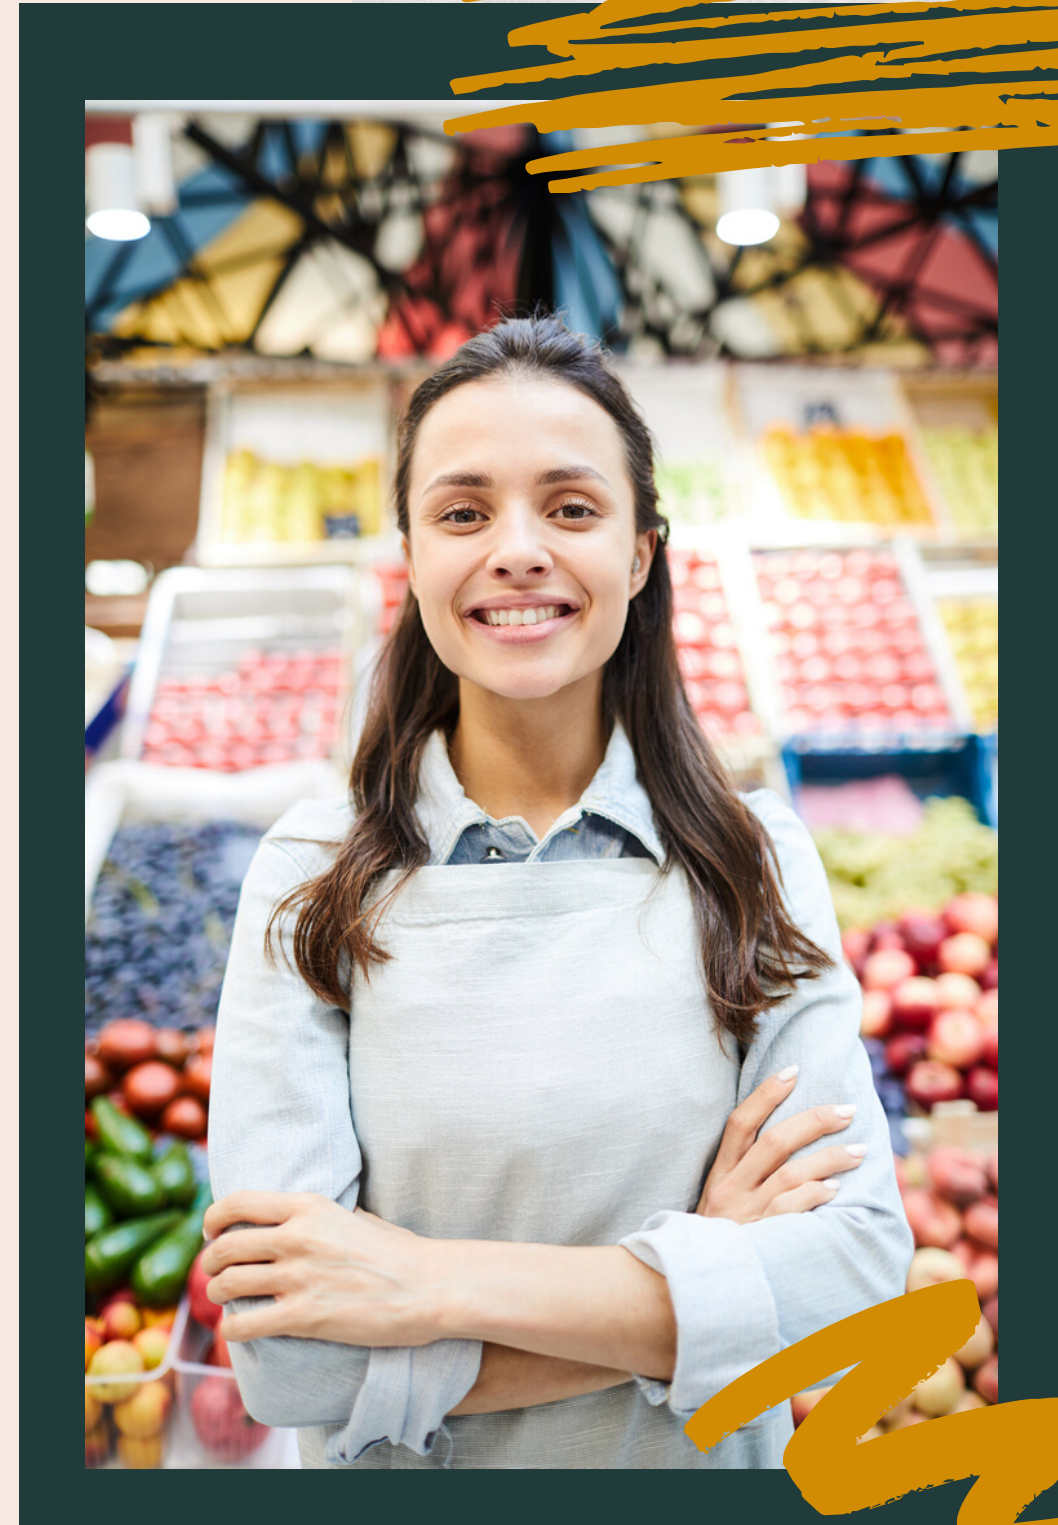

Grocer: Is that all?

Woman: Oh, I've nearly forgotten. I also need 100 grams of smoked ham, thinly sliced, please.

Grocer: All right. Here it is. Something else?

Woman: No, thank you. How much do I owe you?
